AS MASONS WE MUST SPEAK OUT

Portion of Address by—

Past Grand Master Stafford King
Grand Masters Conference, Washington, D.C.

We, as free men and Freemasons, predicate our freedom upon the basis that we are entitled to right to life and to liberty. As Masons we can constantly reiterate our belief in God, our faith in country, our love of home. The rights so to believe and to have faith and to hold love are natural rights—rights inherent in the infant babe at birth and ceasing not before death takes its toll. These are the rights that make us free. Their exercise is freedom.

In the Declaration of our Independence were set down the reasons which impelled our forefathers to seek their freedom from an all-powerful central government—and in the Constitution of our United States were set forth the laws whereby they were to maintain their freedom and ours. Freedom for us was agreed to be individual liberty—to live, to speak, to pray, to work, to own property, to educate our children, to bear arms, to be tried by a jury of our peers, to assemble together, to do as we please, except only that we do not jeopardize the rights, the welfare or the safety of our fellows.

Today the lack of a sense of individual responsibility on the part of many of our citizens, the inherent selfishness of others, and the deliberately taught and constantly fomented ideologies of state-ism, in all its many forms, threaten the very life of our republic, the individual liberties of our people, and the free heritage of our children.

Individual freedom cannot live without expression. Its roots lie deep in the instinct of man and in the recesses of the human mind. But it cannot exist beneath the trampling hordes of revolution or war, nor can it maintain itself, even in the days of peace, within itself, alone and undefended.

Freedom, my Brothers, demands use, deserves protection, inspires sacrifice. It is forever lost through negligence and disservice.

We need not, if we be wise and just, fear revolution. We need not, if we be brave and strong, fear invasion. But state-ism, with all its communistic connotations, is not yet so bold as to attempt either. Instead it lulls us into inaction with soft words and vast promises, and then creeps insidiously into our homes and schools and churches to seduce our thinking until, in fact, it is the strong right arm of freedom which welds in error the chains of our own enslavement.

"Ill fares the land to hastening ills a prey, when wealth accumulates and men decay."

The honeyed phrases "human rights above property rights," "planned economy," "security for all," are as nooses around the necks of free men to lead them toward an autocratic state governed by men rather than by law. In such a state, restrictions forever accumulate and liberty inevitably will decay.

Certainly government should accept the responsibilities granted by the Constitution. Certainly, however, government should not do, nor attempt to do for the people that which they can and of right should do for themselves.

OUR CONSTITUTION

AMERICA

FREEDOM and JUSTICE FOR ALL

BE PROUD
YOU ARE AN AMERICAN
WITH A CONSTITUTION

That "human rights are above property rights" is an adaptation of the proposition of Karl Marx, father of communism, in his communist manifesto, where he declares against private ownership of property. Our Constitution set forth the principle of private ownership and provided that no citizen could lose either property or life without due process of law.

"Planned economy" is a modern procedure which places the freedom and independence of every citizen under the directive control of the "planners," whoever they may be. It is typically communistic in concept because it aggrandizes the state, makes it all-powerful, and subjugates the person of the citizen to its will and pleasure.

The use of the word "security" is perhaps the most insidious and most dangerous of the current political dogmas. Every man is desirous of security for himself and his family. He wants to be free from the fear of old age and poverty, and instinctively he welcomes the half-truth and futile hope of government security. Nor is he inclined to compute his freedoms lost. But security as planned by the active communists and the political demagogue is as false to the basic principles of freedom as serfdom is contrary to the American Constitution.

It is the age-old and repeated temptation of Evil designed to break down Truth. It is as enticing today as when Satan tempted the Master upon the mountain top. In that day it was "Worship me, and I will give you power over all the world." In this day it is "Give government the authority to think and plan for you, give it the earnings of your toil, let it say when to plant and what to reap, let it regulate your life and educate your children—and it will give you security."

By whatever name—"socialism," "state-ism," "paternalism,"—it is the working of atheistic communism to create and maintain the autocracy of centralized authority above the natural rights and God-given liberties of the people. It denies the independence of the individual, and glorifies the power of the state. It stifles ambition and puts a premium upon indolence. It uses the taxes of the worker and producer to buy the subservience of the people. So Esau sold his birth-right for a mess of pottage.

The American Indian, his lands forfeited to the Federal Government, by the force of military conquest became a ward of government—and the government promised him security. Through the years it has doled out to him and to his sons and daughters federal aid for food and shelter and clothing—for health and welfare and education. His movements from reservation to reservation have been restricted; his rights of participation in government denied; his ambition and initiative weakened and destroyed until today the genius of Sitting Bull and the wisdom of Seneca are gone, never to be restored in the developed indolence of their descendants. What centralized authority has done to the Indian yesterday and the day before will be done to all Americans today and tomorrow if we be unalert to the danger and negligent in defense of our free institutions.

It can happen to us. It has happened to the Russians, to the Serbs, to the Montenegrans, to the Latvians, to more than half of the Germans, to most of the Austrians, to the Poles, to the Croats, to the Manchurians, to almost all of China, and to our neighbor 90 miles away in Cuba—all under the rule that might makes right, and under the iron-shod heels of the Red Star's marching men.

In your lifetime and mine we have seen it. Its progress and procedure is blueprinted on every page of current history. Soften the people by grants and aids. Lull them by promise of more to come. Assume control in times of need and emergency. Raise taxes in the unholy name of conformity, and teach a generation of youth that government can, and of right should do ALL things for ALL men.

Then once established, it is forever maintained by force and fear.

You and I, my Brothers, have seen it happen so often in the past few years that now we scarcely remark about it. Comfortable and contented in our own homes, we are smugly unalert to the poet's question—"How can such things be and overcome us like a summer's cloud without our special wonder?"

Both history and experience teach us the immutable rule that, regardless of emergency or desirability of achievement, central control kills independence. When free men permit other men to regulate their lives, they are no longer free.

We are free men, and we proudly bear the designation of Freemasons. With us there can be no appeasement nor compromise, no weakness of intent or purpose in our fight to maintain our land as the last great bulwark of freedom. When we surrender we die. Better far to die on our feet as free men than to live on our knees as bondsmen. The acceptance of the right of freedom carries the obligation of its support and defense.

Palestine Arab Delegations Open letter— To the United Nations

May 2, 1963

His Excellency Ambassador Roger Seydoux,
President of the Security Council,
The United Nations.

We have the honour to submit to your Excellency and members of the Security Council the following observations regarding the letter of Mr. Michael S. Comay which was addressed to the Council on April 29, 1963:

1. The comments of Mr. Comay on the historical declaration of the United Arab Republic and its reference to our beloved country, Palestine, are both unwarranted and irresponsible.

Mr. Comay is a citizen of the Union of South Africa and has no legal status or standing in Palestine. He is an illegal immigrant who went to our country in 1948 as did many other Zionist adventurers, who change their country and national loyalty as easily as they change their shirts. Mr. Comay is the representative of the International Zionist aggressors who committed in Palestine war crimes and crimes against humanity similar to those condemned by the Nuremberg Charter and for which the Nazi leaders were condemned. The Zionist leaders who were a party to these crimes should in due course be tried, condemned and punished according to law.

2. Mr. Comay is the last to speak about "Territorial integrity or political independence," because he represents the international Zionist movement which violated the territorial integrity and political independence of Palestine in contravention of the principles of the United Nations Charter and International Law and Justice.

3. The Zionists brazenly call the war of foreign invasion and aggression they waged against Palestine and its people a "War of Independence." They call their looting of our private lands and homes "reclamation." They have put back the clock of history 3000 years, and yet they object if the Arab Nation, whose hopes and dreams are symbolized in the United Arab Republic, refers to the national duty of liberating Palestine from this immoral and inhuman, illegal Zionist occupation of the Holy Land!

4. Can any person with a sense of decency and fairness blame the Arabs for getting ready to face the Zionist plans of aggression and expansion?

The master of Mr. Comay, namely, the Polish Jew, David Green, known as Ben Gurion, has declared on more than one occasion that the Zionists intend to expand. His exact words are as follows:

"Only now have we reached the beginning of independence in a part of our small country."

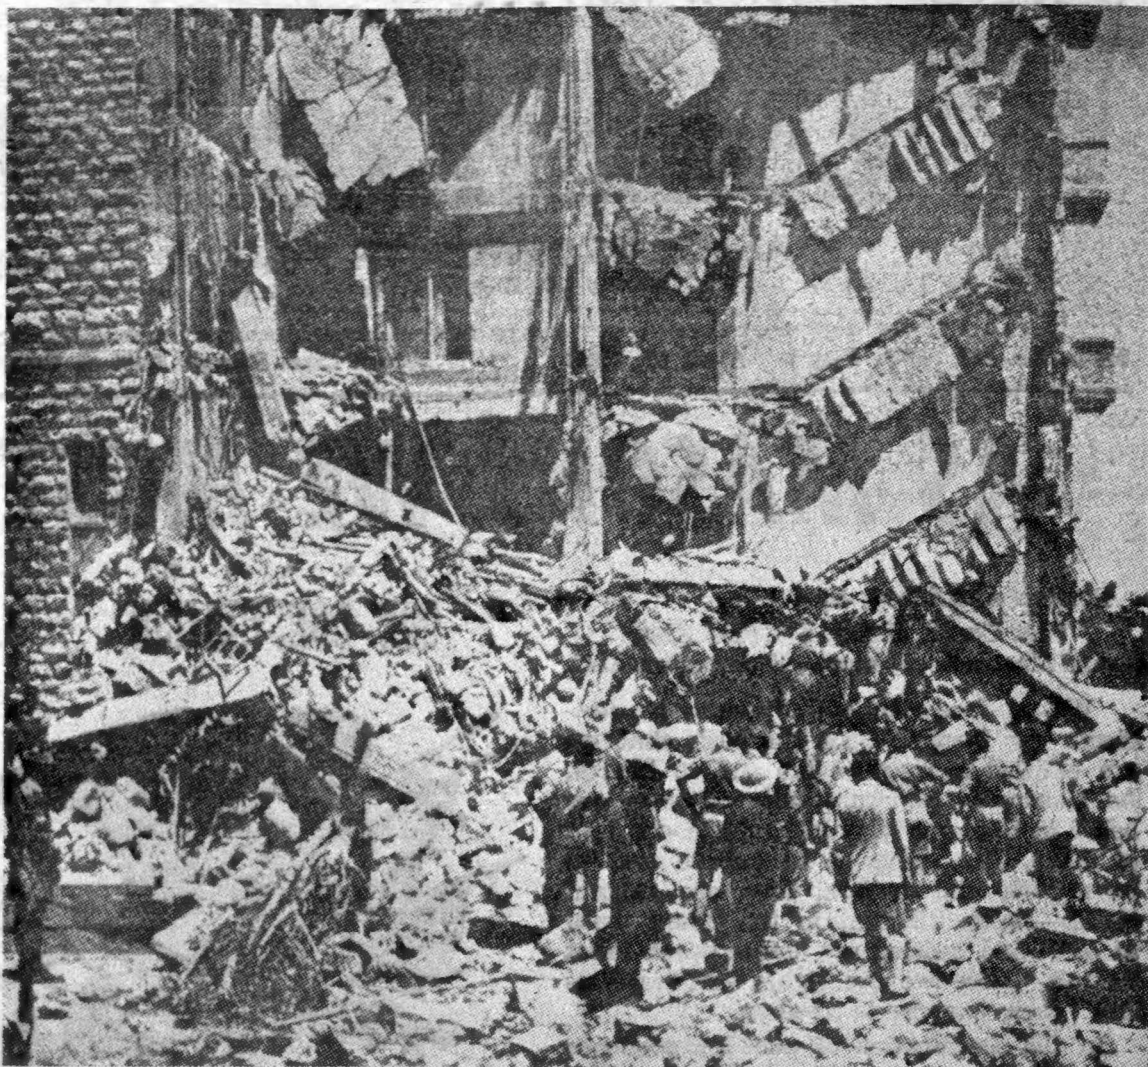

(The 1951 year book of the Zionist Authorities in occupied Palestine, page 402).

"To maintain the status quo will not do. We have set up a dynamic state, bent upon expansion." (Ibid, page 419).

"I add now it (the Jewish state) has been established in only a portion of the land of Israel. Some are hesitant as to the restoration of our historical frontiers, fixed and set from the beginning of time, but even they will hardly deny the anomaly of the new lines." (The same year book of 1952, page 466).

5. It is incomprehensible how the representative of the International Zionist aggressors in illegal occupation of Palestine dare speak of the flagrant violation of the Charter and threat to International peace and security. Their illegal occupation of our country is the flagrant violation of the Charter. The Zionist's illegitimate presence in the heart of the Arab world, their ex-

Results of a bomb set by Jews in stealing Palestine from Arabs

Illustrated London News, Aug. 3, 1946:

"In the early afternoon of July 22, 1946, Jewish terrorists blew up the greater part of the Government offices in the south wing of the King David Hotel, Jerusalem. For this 'brutal and murderous crime' and 'insane act of terrorism,' to use Mr. Attlee's words in the House of Commons, the Jewish Irgun Zvai Leumi have publicly proclaimed themselves responsible. This body, some of whose terrorist acts have been detailed in the White Paper of July 24, which also proved its connection with the Hagana, is a strong military organization, now once more associated with the notorious Stern Gang; and a reward of two thousand pounds is offered for the capture of its leader, the former corporal in the Polish Army, Menachem Beigin. At the date of writing, the casualties in this atrocity are 66 dead, 43 missing, and 47 injured."

pulsion of one million Arabs from our homeland and the acts of looting and robbery they have committed against our property and homes are the cause of threat to International peace and security.

6. We would like to draw the attention of the Security Council to the fact that the Zionist Authorities in occupied Palestine are planning and threatening another aggression on the remaining part of Palestine under the pretext of "preventive war," a term which can only be coined by Zionist ingenuity, arrogance and chicanery.

7. The Zionists are at present busy using their pressure and influence to commit the United States and the United Kingdom to their expansionist plans.

The London Daily Express of April 22 published a headline article stating that: "Britain and the United States will take military action to end any war which may start between Israel and the Arab countries as a result of the rapid growth of Nasser's power."

* * * * *

Marie Reparatrice Church and Convent in Jerusalem blown up by Zionist Jews.

"British forces operating from bases in Cypress and Aden, and U.S. forces from the sixth fleet in the Mediterranean would intervene until an effective barrier of United Nations troops could be established between the Arabs and Israelis.

"Though diplomatic denials of such a new 'Suez' are inevitable, detailed plans for intervention have been drawn up because of the dangerous situation in Jordan.

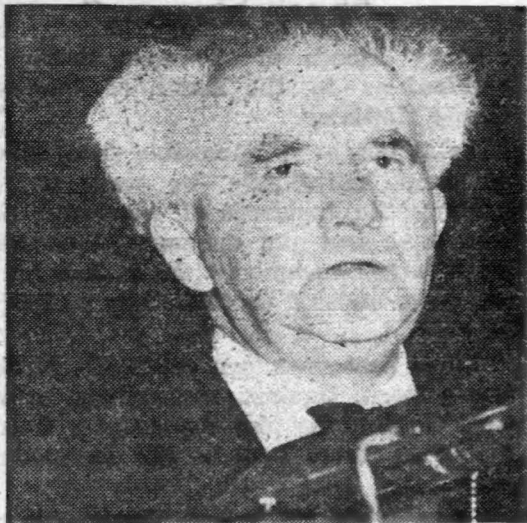

"This situation was discussed during the visit of Mr. Robert McNamara, the United States Defense Secretary, to London two weeks ago.

"The British Government fears that Israel will try to occupy part of Jordan in self-defense if a pro-Nasser revolution breaks out there.

"Nasser might then seize the opportunity to try to liberate Palestine which he considers part of the Arab Homeland, and touch off a revolution in South Arabia at the same time."

8. The innuendo Mr. Comay puts on the phrase "liberation of Palestine," is inaccurate and misleading. The so-called "Israel" never existed in law or in fact. It was nothing but an illegal "proclamation" and illegal occupation by a minority of alien transplanted Jews who by an armed aggression, in violation of International Law, expelled more than one million citizens from Palestine and stole and looted their property and assets. Consequently, there is no "Israel" for the Arabs to destroy. What the Arabs mean by the liberation of Palestine is the restoration of the legitimate people to the Holy Land to enjoy their birthright to freedom and self-determination so that the real legitimate Palestine be admitted to the United Nations. The legitimate citizens of Palestine of the Jewish faith will enjoy all rights as other citizens. This is no destruction of a country or a people. It will be the end of the Zionist regime and liquidation of Zionist leadership in Palestine but no harm will ever befall the ordinary Jewish men and women. Even the illegal Jewish immigrants like Mr. Comay will be given the chance to be repatriated to the countries of their origin. When the Nazi regime was terminated in Europe, the German people were not exterminated. And this would be the case in Palestine.

9. As representatives of the Palestine Arabs we would like to draw the attention of members of the Security Council to the fact that the Zionist pressure groups in the United States and the United Kingdom are launching a campaign of political pressure and brain-washing propaganda through all medias of communication. Members of the British Parliament, U. S. Senators and Congressmen have been recruited in London and Washington to wage this pressure campaign. Zionist stooges are asking the Western powers to enter into a mutual defense pact with the aggressors, looters and robbers to confirm and protect their aggression and stolen loot. The Palestine Arab people have not lost faith or hope that the British and American people will awake in time to counteract this Zionist pressure. The Zionists are working for war and aggression and want to drag the Western powers and the whole world into war.

The Western powers must take full blame and responsibility for Zionist irresponsible actions because it is their political, financial and military assistance to Zionists which made it possible for them to commit and continue this Zionist aggression and illegal occupation of Palestine. Western policy has not been conducive to justice, peace and stability in the Middle East.

We earnestly hope that the Western powers and particularly the United States and United Kingdom will resist Zionist pressure and will withdraw all aid from the Zionist aggressors and their aims of kindling war of aggressions in the Middle East.

Arab Ghettos in Israel

Haboker newspaper in its 1-23-1954 issue, reported that Msgr. Antonio Fergani, Bishop of the Catholic Church in Israel, had stated:

"The condition of the Arab minority in Israel is very wretched. Unemployment prevails among them. I do not hesitate to state that the Israeli Government is solely responsible for the prevalence of this unemployment, as in no other country in the world are there similar laws prohibiting a citizen from searching for work to earn a living."

The same newspaper in its 2-6-1954 issue, published a speech delivered by Msgr. George Hakim, Catholic Archbishop in Israel, in which he said: "The Arab Christians are dissatisfied with the cruel treatment to which they are subjected by the Israeli Government. A great number of the buildings and lands which belong to the Christian churches have been confiscated."

Archbishop Hakim also stated in Arrabita Review, which is published in Nazareth, a list of 198 Arab villages which have been destroyed by the Jewish authorities.

Haaretz newspaper in its 4-5-1954 issue stated that the persecution of the Arab minority in Israel has made a large number of the Arab population incline to communism. This was evident in the last municipal election at Nazareth.

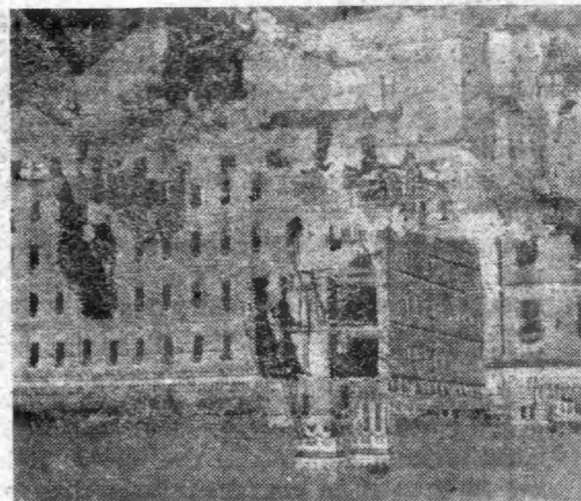

The Israeli authorities went so far in persecuting the Arab minority as to enact special laws affecting their civil and religious affairs, especially with regard to Moslems, which laws contradict the teachings of Islam. Among these laws are those requiring Moslem women to serve in the Israeli Army and to have their photographs affixed to their identity cards. Moreover, Israeli laws interfere with Moslem conventions of marriage and divorce and with other religious rites.

Kolhaam newspaper published in its 2-26-1954 issue an article in which it said that the Arab minority in Israel is being forced to live in a "ghetto" which is much worse than the ghettos the Jews used to live in. The paper further stated that most of the Arab population in Israel is unemployed and suffer from the low standard of living imposed upon them.

Mr. Ronald Peretz, a senior official of the Israeli Ministry of Foreign Affairs, prepared a pamphlet, which was published last spring by Middle East Journal Co. of New York, in which he stated that the Arab minority in Israel feel they are persecuted and that some of the Jewish population are aware of this persecution, but those conscientious people have to keep silent owing to the pressure of the Israeli Government.

Another piece of evidence of the persecution of Arabs in Israel can be taken from the following article which was written by Maaref in its 3-14-1954 issue. The writer said: "Come my daughter, with me to Galilee. Do you see these wide plains and these demolished villages? These villages and plains were once inhabited by tens of thousands of people, but we have usurped them from their rightful owners by devilish ways. The lands of the few Arabs who remained in Israel have also been usurped by us, notwithstanding the fact that our courts have ruled that the Arabs are the legal owners of those lands. But the Government has ignored the decision of the courts, and has expropriated those lands and allotted them to Israeli leaders. My intention is to let you see the lands which were the abode of prophets and the places where brotherhood was bred. I feel ashamed to look the Arab in the face as I do not like to be counted one of the thieves of night. We have not reached the end of our dispute with the Arabs and I am worried about your future, my girl, as it is you who will have to pay the price. Do you see, my girl, this Jewish settlement which was founded on an usurped land?"

The Tel Aviv paper Haaretz condemned the imposition of military rule on Arabs in Israel. The following is quoted from an article published in the paper's issue of 1-14-1955, No. 10774: "An Arab in Israel is not permitted to leave his place of residence without a written permit from the military authorities. If he disobeys instructions he is presented for military trial, involving punishment. Suspect Arabs only should be restricted in their movements, for there can be no justification whatever for the present system of travel permits applied to some parts of the country."

BEHIND COMMUNISM STANDS THE JEW

Premier Khrushchev and his wife paid a rare final tribute to an apparent companion of their youth by leading the list of signers of a black-bordered death notice in Pravda for Lev Abramovich, the former Jewish director of a Communist Party training school.

Arkansas Gazette, Feb. 14, 1963

U.S. taxpayers and World Zionists are responsible for one million Arabs living in the desert today

Wherever communism gains a foothold, wherever dictatorship rules, wherever people for any reason are dependent upon government, liberty is destroyed, property is confiscated, and taxes rise to perpetuate paternalism.

Centralized authority cannot and should not exist where free men demand that liberty be maintained, and when they have the courage and the wisdom to enforce their demands.

America stands almost alone as the last great citadel of liberty. It is the oldest constitutional republic in the world. It has grown greater in ten generations than any other nation in a hundred. Not because our natural wealth was greater—not that Americans were stronger mentally or physically than were the people from whence they sprang—not that we were more ambitious or industrious than our ancestors—but solely because under our form of constitutional government Americans have been free to use all their energy, free to accept the inspiration of their own ambition, free to work and sacrifice for their own advancement, and free to profit by their own mistakes.

But now that same energy is becoming confined and contained, limited and restricted.

We did not seek it—we do not want it—we hoped it might pass us by, but this is war—ruthless, vicious, uncompromising to the death—and we are in it—in self-defense—for the ashes of our fathers and the altars of our gods." And Khrushchev says our children will be communists! That he "will bury us!"

If freedom be preserved, we need hearken once again to the voice of Washington as he warned against alien influence and foreign entanglements. We must recognize the wisdom of Marshall who declared, "The power to tax is the power to destroy." We must recall the declaration of Jefferson, "That government is best which governs least." We must find the conscience of Franklin who asked in prayer the guidance of Almighty God in his contention to be free. And we must have no less courage and character than Patrick Henry who asked, "Is life so dear or peace so sweet as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery?"

It is for us, my Brothers, to recognize that communism, as such, cannot make good citizens, nor accept free ones. No Godless ideology can produce a nation of free men. "When people forget God, tyrants forge their chains."

We must get back to God. We must regain our lost concept of freedom. We must be reinvested with the spirit of the ancient principles from which our nation was born. We must be alerted to the price we know must be paid for liberty. We must, as men and Masons, in no way shirk the full responsibilities of our citizenship. God-given freedom must not be lost through apathy or fear, nor jeopardized by expediency, nor compromised by unbalanced thinking.

It is a crime unspeakable to send our sons and daughters into recurrent wars to die for the ideal of freedom, only to destroy that same ideal, because we have not the stamina to protect and defend it, in time of peace.

Five million men with one ideal of freedom—with one voice to proclaim it—without fear in the holy cause they serve—can leaven the thought and strengthen the character of the whole nation—of the whole world.

This is the hour. The sand runs low in the glass. We have little time. Let it be not wasted in useless bickering about religious sects, nor political extremists, nor social distinctions. Harmony is still the strength and support of all society. United we can prevail. We know the way. We must speak out.

And if for a moment we see no danger, let us turn our eyes to the East whence comes the Light, and to the South, the better to observe the time. There stands the Spirit of Cuba, chained and shackled, with weeping eyes and upturned hands, crying out in misery,—Oh, Lord, my God, is there no help—is there no hope!

Jews Protest Israeli 'Bias'

More than 3,500 Orthodox Jews, in a Manhattan Center rally, last night protested what they termed unfair treatment of religious Jews by the Israeli government.

The rally was sponsored by the Central Rabbinical Congress of the U.S. and Canada of 134 Broadway, Brooklyn.

The group said it was "shocked by the tragic facts from Israel concerning the bitter hatred campaign against religious Jews which was caused by the Israeli press and supported in government circles."

The arrests in Israel of a number of Orthodox rabbis were denounced.

"Keep Slugging"

Many friends of Common Sense have inquired as to the health of our editor, Conde McGinley.

As it has been impossible to answer all of them individually, we want to thank publicly the hundreds of wonderful people who have sent him messages of encouragement, have remembered him in their prayers, and have assisted us materially in this hour of need.

These past seventeen years Mr. McGinley has striven, against tremendous odds, to save Christianity and our country from the diabolical forces bent on the destruction of both.

Despite Mr. McGinley's illness, his mind is alert and he does some work daily from his bed. Although he has shown definite improvement the past months, his condition is still serious. We ask you, his friends, to continue to storm heaven in his behalf.

Besides your prayers and your substantial aid, the best way to help Conde McGinley get well is, in his own words:

EGYPTIANS — NO DOPES!

"Egyptian Government divers on the beach near Alexandria bring up from shallow water, bags of what was alleged to be mostly hashish and opium. According to U. A. R. sources, the bags contained drugs that had been dropped by Israeli steamer outside the three mile limit, brought by motor boats to a point close in, and put in bags so the smugglers could swim in with it under water. According to the account, the plot was discovered by a group of women who had gone down to the shore to bathe in the early morning to avoid being observed by men. Officially in the U. A. R. blame has been laid on Israel for $7,000,000 of drugs smuggled into Egypt. Israel was accused of 'deliberately trying to dope Egyptians in order to soften their resistance'. It was an illustration of worsening relations between the countries."

Kennedy's Scheme

When Pres. Kennedy recently arranged for refugees from Red China to enter the United States, it wasn't the first time he had solved a refugee problem. Fanny Holtzman, noted U.S. lawyer, tells of another occasion.

"It was in 1939, and I was in London working to help refugees escaping from Nazi Germany," Miss Holtzman recalls. "Neither Britain nor the United States would relax their strict immigration laws to accept them."

"One day I ran into Jack—his father was then ambassador to Britain—and told him my problem. He had a few ideas, but nothing worked. Then one day Jack had an inspiration. 'Why not send them to New York as visitors to the World's Fair?' he suggested. 'They can get visas for that. Then once they are there, no one will have the heart to send them back.'"

The scheme was tried—and it worked. Kennedy's idea thus became the formula by which thousands hounded by Hitler escaped to freedom.
